SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

Monday, September 15*th*, 1745. [Numb. 599]

South-Carolina.

By His Excellency

James Glen, Esq;

Captain General, Governor & Commander in Chief in and over His Majesty's said Province.

A Proclamation

WHEREAS several Gentlemen, who have been elected Members of the ensuing General Assembly, have been necessarily detained in the Country. And whereas it may be attended with Inconveniencies, should they meet at the Time appointed in the Writs issued for that Purpose.

I therefore have thought fit, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's Honourable Council, to prorogue the said General Assembly, to Tuesday the Eighth Day of October next; and they are hereby prorogued accordingly.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of this His Majesty's Province, in Charles-Town, the Tenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1745. and in the Nineteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

JAMES GLEN.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

By His Excellency's Command,
John Champneys, Dep. Secr.

LONDON, April 25.

THEY write from Paris, That the Marshal de Belleisle is preparing shortly to come over hither, in order to remain with the Duke her Husband at Windsor, and that the Court is exceedingly taken up in preparing the necessary Instructions, and other Implements, requisite for her Journey, which they commonly stile the new Expedition into England, and from which they have strong Hopes

We hear that the Rt Hon. the Lord Vere Beauclerk, George Anson, and Peregrine Mayne, Esqrs are appointed Admirals; and that they, together with Admiral Vernon, are to be of the Court Martial to try the Admirals and Captains charg'd with Misconduct in the Mediterranean.

April 29. His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Admiral Vernon to be President of the Court Martial for the Trial of Admiral Mathews, &c.

April 30 The Court Martial to try the Admirals, is to be like a Court of Delegates, and to consist of Peers, Commoners, Admirals, Judges Civilians and Serjeants at Law.

A List of Flag Officers the 24th Day of April, 1745

Sir John Norris, Admiral of the Fleet.

Thomas Mathews, and Edward Vernon, Esqrs. Admirals of the White.

Nicholas Haddock, Esq; and Sir Chaloner Ogle, Admirals of the Blue.

James Stewart, Thomas Davers, and the Honourable George Clinton, Esqrs. Vice-Admirals of the Red.

William Martin, and William Rowley, Esqrs. Vice Admirals of the White.

Isaac Townshend, and Henry Medley, Esqrs. Vice Admirals of the Blue.

The Right Hon. Lord Vere Beauclerk, Rear Admiral of the Red.

George Anson, Esq; Rear-Admiral of the White.

Peregrine Mayne, Esq; Rear-Admiral of the Blue.

Richard Lestock, Esq; Vice Admiral of the White, under Suspension.

May 2. Yesterday there was a grand Council at St. James's, when his Majesty was pleased to appoint the Lords of the Regency who are to transact the Affairs of this Kingdom during his Absence.

May 4. We hear the following is a List of the Lords of the Regency, viz. Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Chancellor, Lord Gower, Duke of Dorset, Duke of Devonshire, Duke of Montague, Duke of Bedford, Duke of Richmond, Duke of Bolton, Duke of Argyle, Duke of Newcastle, Duke of Grafton, Marquis of Tavistock, Earl of Chesterfield, Earl of Harrington, Earl of Stair, Earl of Pembroke, Earl of Bath, Lord Cobham, and Henry Pelham, Esq

According to private Letters from Munich, the Marriage between his Electoral Highness of Bavaria and the Princess Royal of Poland, is entirely settled; and it is thought, will be celebrated immediately after the Diet of Election is over.

There is an Account by the last Lisbon Mail, that Admiral Rowley had block'd up Carthagena, in which Port was a Squadron of Spanish Men of War; and that he had detach'd Commodore Osborne, with Thirteen Men of War, towards Cape St. Vincent, in Quest of a Squadron of French Men of War, which had been cruizing there.

Yesterday Morning, about 10 o'Clock, his Majesty went in his Barge from White-Hall to Lambeth, and from thence to Gravesend, where he embark'd on board the Royal Caroline Yacht, and immediately set Sail for Holland, in his Way to his German Dominions.

May 18 Capt Ambrose, of his Majesty's Ship Rupert, has taken near 30 Sail of the Enemy's ships, 10 of them bound to Martinico, the others Xabeques, and a Man of War of War of 24 Guns

Early Yesterday Morning General Follies draughted from the Three Regiment of Guards, on the Parade in St. James's Park, 3 Colonels, 8 Captains, 8 Ensigns, 4 Surgeons, 16 Serjeants, 16 Corporals, 8 Drums, and 341 private Men; who immediately march'd, under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Pitt, to take Water, viz. those of the first Regiment at Whitehall, those of the 2d at the Savoy, and those of the 3d at the Tower, in order to embark on board the Tenders at Gravesend for Ostend.

Whitehall, May 18. Sunday in the Forenoon his Majesty arrived at Helvoetsluys in perfect Health, and soon after proceeded on his Journey to Holland. And on Wednesday their Excellencies the Lords of the Regency met at the Cockpit, and open'd their Commission

There is an Account, that Commodore Osborne, with 13 Men of War, was in Pursuit and in Sight of 8 Spanish and French Men of War

London, May 21 Orders are given for Blakeney's and Cornel's Regiments of Marines, to march forthwith to Portsmouth, to go on board the Fleet fitting out at Spithead.

We hear that Admiral Vernon will hoist his Flag on board the Royal George, Captain

Clifford, a first Rate, now at the Nore; and that when he arrives at Sheerness a Court Martial will be held for the Trials of the Admirals Mathews and Lestock, &c. The Fleet under his Command will consist of one Ship of 100 Guns, Four of 90, Two of 80, Four of 70, Three of 60, Three of 50, Two of 40 and Two of 20; besides Three Bomb-Vessels, Two Fireships, an Hospital Ship, and Four Tenders.

Thursday 100 Marrosses, 10 Cadet Gunners, and 24 Bombardiers, with 120 Pioneers, were draughted out of the Train of Artillery at Woolwich, whose Orders are to embark immediately for Flanders.

We hear, that on the Arrival of the first News of the late Battle in Holland, the People there were under great Consternation; but upon the second Advices, of the Bravery of the British Troops, and of the good Heart and Countenance of the Allied Army, the State came to a Resolution of sending immediately a Reinforcement of 6000 Men.

They write from Ireland, that an Order was issued for a Draught of 20 Men to be made out of each Company of Foot in that Kingdom, which are to embark for Flanders; for which Purpose several Ships are already hired.

Some private Advices from the Hague, say, that the Election of the Grand Duke of Tuscany to the Imperial Dignity, is a Point settled; and that the Electors of Mentz, Triers, and Cologn, will assist in Person at the Election.

We hear that one of the Highlanders belonging to Lord Semple's Regiment, kill'd 17 Frenchmen at the late Action near Tournay.

May 22. They write from Hamburgh, that the Jews at Prague have received the agreeable News, that her Hungarian Majesty had, by a new Edict, granted full Liberty for them to remain in Bohemia.

They write from Brussels, that they are well assured, that from the 30th of April to the 27th of May, N S the French have lost 25,000 Men before Tournay, together with those in the late Action near Fontenoy.

We hear from the Hague, that their High Mightinesses have wrote to the Prince of Waldeck, not to venture another Battle without being morally sure of Success

The Dykes about Newport are laid open, and the Lands are laid under Water, to prevent any Attempts being made on that side.

Ondenarde, May 11th, O. S. Tournay continues to make a vigorous Defence. On the 7th the Besieged sprung a Mine, which blew up about 2000 French. M. De Saxe being apprehensive of a second Visit from the Allies, has caused a great Number of Chevaux de Frize to be made in order to cover his Troops in case of an Attack. All the French Deserters assure, that Count De Saxe perceiving the Obstinacy of the Allies at the Action of Fontenoy, had caused the Ground to be levell'd for the Retreat of his Troops; and that if it had lasted a Quarter of an Hour longer, the French must have retir'd. 'Tis said, that the French have lost 14,000 Men since they open'd the Trenches before Tournay.

Hague, May 13, O S. Advices from the Camp before Tournay, and from Lisle, of the 11th Instant, say, that the Garison of that Place made a most vigorous Defence during the Four preceeding Days, and that the French had lost Abundance of Men; but that on the 11th at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, the Garison hung out a white Flag, and they were drawing up the Capitulation when the Letters came away, so that the Conditions of it were not yet known. Wednesday Evening, six Officers of the Guards, and others, were brought hither, being accused of Treason and Cowardice, for running away at the Battle of Fontenoy, upon the first Discharge of the Enemy's Cannon.

Hague, May 16. Messrs. Lintelo, Lt. Col in Bracket's Regiment, and Onderwater, Capt in Schultz Van Hagen's Regiment of Horse, arrived here the 14th Instant in the Evening from Tournay, to acquaint the States General, that the Garison having held out to the last Extremity, had been obliged, on the 11th in the Evening, to beat the Chamade; that the Besiegers having made a considerable Breach in the Body of the Place, and brought Fascines to fill up the Ditch, and Ladders to scale the Ramparts; in a Word, that every Thing was ready for an Assault. Baron Dort, the Governor, had sent to the Camp M Fagel Van Affendelft, Lord of Heynenoort, Colonel of the Regiment of Schultz Van Hagen, and M. Lauzy, Col. of the Prince of Holstein Gottorp's Regiment, to treat about a Capitulation; that after several Messages to and from the Camp, they at last came to a Capitulation for the Town, which was signed by both Parties the 12th Instant in the Evening.

All that we yet know of the Articles is, that the whole Garison have been allowed to retire into the Citadel, with all their Baggage and every Thing belonging to them; That there should be a Truce for Eight Days, and the Governor be allowed to send in the Interval, one or two Officers of the Garison to their High Mightinesses, for fresh Instructions. Upon which the two Officers above mentioned set out the 13th in the Morning with French Passports, but were not suffer'd to pass through the Camp of the Besiegers, nor by the Camp of the Allies; but were obliged to take a Circuit by Lisle &c. Upon the Receipt of this News their High Mightinesses and the Council of State assembled early Yesterday Morning, and continued sitting 'till Evening.

The following are some Particulars we have learned, of what has passed at Tournay during the Siege.

From the Day the Trenches were opened to the Time they capitulated, the Garison defended themselves with all the Bravery imaginable, and did the Enemy a great deal of Mischief; so that the French themselves confess, that this Siege has cost them upwards of 10,000 Men, besides what they lost in the Battle of Fontenoy, during which Action the whole Garison were under Arms, ready to make a general Sally, in case the Allies had beat the Enemy, and so make a Victory compleat And the Garison had 1200 Men kill'd and wounded.

London, May 25. The Sloop of War, arrived at Portsmouth from Gibraltar, has brought from thence the Captains and Chief Officers ordered home, to be tried with the Admirals Matthews and Lestock.

Letters from Marseilles, by way of Chamberry, of the 2d Say, that 33 Sail of English Men of War were arriv'd in the Bay of Provence

The Milford, Mc Alpine, has retaken a Vessel bound from Carolina to London, and sent her into King Road. The Sapphire Man of War has taken a Spanish Privateer of 24 Cartiage Guns and 150 Men, and carried her into Kinsale; the Monmouth Man of War, a Privateer of 18 Guns and 120 Men; and was left in Chase of the Grand Duke, since carried into Torbay; and the Captain, the Grand Turk Privateer of St. Malo's, of 36 Guns and 400 Men, and carried her into Portland Road.

Letters from Lisbon bring Advice, that on the 1st of May, N. S. a rich Spanish Ship call'd the St Joseph N. S. Granada Capt. Juan Fresisco de Landa, from Carthagena and the Havanna, was brought into that Harbour by the Kinsale Kan Privateer of London; her Cargo consists of eight Chests of Silver, containing 24,511 Dollars, 200 Chest of Gold containing 50,436 Dollars Also 17250 Dollars, and three large Bars of Gold that are not registered; besides a very large Cargo of Sugar, Coffee, Snuff, Hydes, and Tobacco Capt Barker took her the 13th of April, in Lat 36, after a Chase of 3 Days, and is the richest Prize taken by any Privateer since the War.

Extract of a private Letter from Brussels, May 22, O S.

We have intercepted a Letter here from a French Officer to his brother at Paris, in which is contain'd the most exact Account we have hitherto beheld of the late Action on the 11th of May. In this Letter it is said, that if the Allies had continued their Efforts a single Quarter of an Hour, they had carried their Point; the Count De Saxe having ordered the Artillery before the Town to be remov'd and was on the very Point of sending his Aid de Camp to desire the King and Dauphin, to secure their Persons, by withdrawing in Time, when the Allies retired. There is in this Letter a List, from which it appears the French have had 331 Officers kill'd and wounded, 6335 private Men kill'd, and 6881 wounded.

We have Advice from the Camp of the Allies, that his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and the Field Marshal Count Konigsegg, having declared that in the present Situation of Things, it was absolutely necessary to make Examples of such as failed in their Duty, Prince Waldeck gave Orders for arresting the Colonel of the Regiment of Hessi Homburg, and some other Officers, which was immediately done; and we hourly expect an Account of their Sentences.

P. S. We have this Moment Intelligence, that the Dutch Court Martial, of which Major General Velsmans was President, has sentenc'd Lieutenant General Appius to be shot at the Head of the Army; and it is believed this Sentence has been already put in Execution.

We hear that Brigadier Ingoldsby is order'd speedily to be tried by a Court Martial, for his Misbehaviour in the late Action near Tournay.

Bristol,

Bristol, June 1. Thursday last arrived in Kingroad, the Shoreham Privateer of this Port, Capt Furnell, and Boscawen Privateer of Dartmouth, Capt. Walter, with five homeward bound Martinico Men, laden with 1650 Hogsheads of fine Sugars, upwards of 100 Tons of Coffee, besides Cotton, &c. worth at least 40,000 l.

The Account Capt. Furnell gives of his Cruize is as follows; on the 8th of May in Lat. 46 Deg 10 Min. Long. 7 Deg. 4 Min. we fell in with Admiral Medley's Squadron of 17 Sail, who gave us Chace, on the 13th in Lat. 47 Deg. 12 Min. Long. 6. 50, saw the Brest squadron consisting of nine Sail steering to the Eastward; on the 23d met with the Boscawen Privateer, whose Captain coming on board, we agreed to keep Company that Night; at five next Morning, saw a Fleet of eight Sail standing to the Eastward hail'd the Boscawen, and agreed to give Chace. We came up with them about Nine, when they all hoisted French Colours, and began a brisk Engagement, with two or three Ships on us at a Time, which lasted two Hours with great Bravery on both sides, when 4 of them struck; of which one soon after sunk downright, and that so suddenly, that out of 64 Hands we could save but 16.

In the Engagement we suffered greatly in our Rigging, and had some shot that went through us, but thank God, had but one Man kill'd of both Crews. One of my Men had his Thigh, another his Calf shot away, and six others slightly wounded. While we were boarding the other three, two ran off a Head, and in the Engagement two others got quite away to Leeward. The Boscawen sailing astern to take Care of the three Prizes, we gave Chace to the other two, which we soon came up with, one after another, and obliged to strike

BOSTON, August 5.

We have an Account from Lyme in Connecticut, That there has been lately found by Jonathan Chadwick of that Town, a Stone of an extraordinary Appearance: It is about 6 Inches long about 5 Inches wide and about 4 Inches and an half thick; and very irregular, sharp pointed, rough and uneven, of a reddish Colour, but transparent to that Degree that an Object either near at Hand or far off is seen through it as clearly as if it were not in the Way: Some Part of it appears much the Colour of a Rain-Bow: It is much heavier than any common Stone of that Bigness, and will cut Glass as well as any Diamond. It is tho't by many to be a Pearl of great Value Tourmaline (?)
